

Inhaltsverzeichnis

01	Revision year 5 – Wiederholung 5. Klasse	1
02	Present Perfect – Regular Verbs Only	5
03	Present Perfect – Past Participle of Irregular Verbs	6
04	Present Perfect – Regular and Irregular Verbs	7
05	Present Perfect with JEANY – just, ever, already, never, yet	9
06	Past Progressive	12
07	Future with WILL	15
08	Future with GOING TO	16
09	Tenses in contrast: Present Perfect – Simple Past	17
10	Tenses in contrast: Simple Past – Past Progressive	20
11	Tenses in contrast: Will Future – Going to Future	22
12	Tenses in contrast: Revision end exercises 6. Klasse	23
13	Possessive Pronouns	27
14	Comparison of Adjectives	29
15	Adjectives and Adverbs	33
16	Much – Many – A lot of	37
17	Some, any and their compounds	40
18	British and American English	44
	Writing short texts	46
	Writing a E-Mail	47
	Writing a Picture-based story	49
	Writing a Blog	50

02: Present Perfect – Regular Verbs Only

Write the correct form of the sentences for the different people.

I have visited London.	I have played a game.	}	have
You _____ visited London.	You _____ a game.
He _____ visited London.	He _____ a game.	}	has
She _____ visited London.	She _____ a game.
It _____ visited London	It _____ a game.
We _____ visited London.	We _____ a game.	}	have
You _____ visited London.	You _____ a game.
They _____ visited London.	They _____ a game.

Decide if you need „have“ or „has“

Pete has travelled to London.	You _____ opened a door.
We _____ watched a film .	He _____ used a taxi.
They _____ ordered a pizza.	I _____ talked to my Mum.
It _____ played with a ball.	My Mum _____ phoned my Dad.

Now write complete sentences in present perfect.

1. Susan has closed _____ (to close) the door.
2. We _____ (to wash) our dog.
3. You _____ (to talk) to Grandma.
4. Bill and Bob _____ (to listen) to a song.
5. Steve _____ (to play) golf.
6. I _____ (tidy) my room.

Chose a word from the wordbank and complete sentences in the present perfect.

Bill and Bob have cleaned the hamster cage. It was dirty.
 I _____ my words. Can I go now?
 Susan _____ Pete, because she likes him.
 You _____ a picture of his house.
 We _____ the car. Now it is clean.
 He _____ eating sweets. They weren't good for him.
 Susan and me _____ into the pool, because it was hot.

Ask questions. Use present perfect. Write down the short answers.

1. Have you phoned (phone) your grandma? Yes, I have.
2. Has Susan tidied (tidy) her room? Yes, she has.
3. _____ (Ben/ open) the book? Yes, _____
4. _____ (the boys/ play) football? Yes, _____
5. _____ (we / visit) our friend? Yes, _____
6. _____ (I / stop) the car? No, I haven't.
7. _____ (Pete/ stay) with his dad? No, _____
8. _____ (you/ order) some burgers? No, we _____
9. _____ (they/ paint) the fence? No, _____
10. _____ (she/ jump) from the 5m board? No, _____.

Now let's make negative sentences.

1. Susan hasn't closed (not/ to close) the door.
2. He _____ (not/ to wash) the car.
3. You _____ (not/ to listen) to me.
4. The boys _____ (not/ to talk) to their teacher.
5. Steve _____ (not/ to play) football.
6. My sister _____ (not/ to tidy) her room.
7. The teachers _____ (not/ to mark) our tests.

Complete the conversations. Use present perfect.

Mum: _____ (you/ clean) your bike, Ben?

Ben: No, I _____. But I _____ (carry) it into the garage.

Mum: You _____ (not/ listen) to me. Clean it now.

Susan and Amy: Mr Williamson, we _____ (type) our letters.

Mr Williamson: _____ (you/ use) different colours?

Susan: Yes, I _____, but Amy _____ (close) the laptop.

Mrs Robinson: _____ (your parents / travel) to Paris?

Steve: Yes, _____. They _____ (stay) at a small hotel.

Mrs Robinson: _____ (they/ climb) the Eiffel Tower?

Steve: No, _____. They _____ (use) the lift.

02: Present Perfect – Regular Verbs Only

Write the correct form of the sentences for the different people.

I	have	visited London.	I	have played	a game.	}	have
You	have	visited London.	You	have played	a game.
He	has	visited London.	He	has played	a game.	}	has
She	has	visited London.	She	has played	a game.
It	has	visited London	It	has played	a game.	}	have
We	have	visited London.	We	have played	a game.
You	have	visited London.	You	have played	a game.	}	have
They	have	visited London.	They	have played	a game.

Decide if you need „have“ or „has“

Pete	has	travelled to London.	You	have	opened a door.
We	have	watched a film .	He	has	used a taxi.
They	have	ordered a pizza.	I	have	talked to my Mum.
It	has	played with a ball.	My Mum	has	phoned my Dad.

Now write complete sentences in present perfect.

- Susan has closed (to close) the door.
- We have washed (to wash) our dog.
- You have talked (to talk) to Grandma.
- Bill and Bob have listened (to listen) to a song.
- Steve has played (to play) golf.
- I have tidied (to tidy) my room.

Chose a word from the wordbank and complete the sentences in present perfect.

- Bill and Bob have cleaned the hamster cage. It was dirty.
- I have learned my words. Can I go now?
- Susan has kissed Pete, because she likes him.
- You have painted a picture of his house.
- We have washed the car. Now it is clean.
- He has stopped eating sweets. They weren't good for him.
- Susan and me have jumped into the pool, because it was hot.

Ask questions. Use present perfect. Write down the short answers.

1. Have you phoned (phone) your grandma? Yes, I have.
2. Has Susan tidied (tidy) her room? Yes, she has.
3. Has Ben opened (Ben/ open) the book? Yes, he has.
4. Have the boys played (the boys/ play) football? Yes, they have.
5. Have we visited (we / visit) our friend? Yes, we have.
6. Have I stopped (I / stop) the car? No, I haven't.
7. Has Pete stayed (Pete/ stay) with his dad? No, he hasn't.
8. Have you ordered (you/ order) some burgers? No, we haven't.
9. Have they painted (they/ paint) the fence? No, they haven't.
10. Has she jumped (she/ jump) from the 5m board? No, she hasn't.

Now let's make negative sentences.

1. Susan hasn't closed (not/ close) the door.
2. He hasn't washed (not/ wash) the car.
3. You haven't listened (not/ listen) to me.
4. The boys haven't talked (not/ talk) to their teacher.
5. Steve hasn't played (not/ play) football.
6. My sister hasn't tidied (not/ tidy) her room.
7. The teachers haven't marked (not/ mark) our tests.

Complete the conversations. Use present perfect.

Mum: have you cleaned (you/ clean) your bike, Ben?

Ben: No, I haven't. But I have carried (carry) it into the garage.

Mum: You haven't listened (not/ listen) to me. Clean it now.

Susan and Amy: Mr Williamson, we have typed (type) our letters.

Mr Williamson: Have you used (you/ use) different colours?

Susan: Yes, I have, but Amy has closed (close) the laptop.

Mrs Robinson: Have your parents travelled (your parents / travel) to Paris?

Steve: Yes, they have. They have stayed (stay) at a small hotel.

Mrs Robinson: Have they climbed (they/ climb) the Eiffel Tower?

Steve: No, they haven't. They have used (use) the lift.